

Advance Praise for FACE TO FACE WITH KATRINA SURVIVORS

“This book reaffirms the indomitable spirit of people in the face of great adversity. The interactions and new relationships that were forged at the ‘Katrina Clinic’ in Houston make one proud to be part of the human race.”

CONGRESSWOMAN SHEILA JACKSON LEE, D-TEXAS
18th Congressional District of Texas, U.S. House of Representatives

“Face to Face is insightful, poignant and an excellent assessment of the victims of Hurricane Katrina. I strongly recommend this book to physicians, first responders and all people who believe there is a greater good.”

ALBERT W. MORRIS, JR., MD, PRESIDENT
National Medical Association

DR. EDWARD FORT
Chancellor Emeritus and Distinguished Professor of Education
North Carolina A&T State University

“Dr. Moyé’s work is a great tribute to the resolve and strength of spirit of the people of the Gulf Coast region in the face of tragedy. While the experiences of those affected by Hurricane Katrina are a reminder of the depth and breadth of the devastation, the unwavering determination of the survivors provides a source of optimism for the future.”
